TUESDAY......APRIL 12, 1887.

The London Times of the 29th of March has an article on the subject of the State debt of Virginia which some persons construe as indicating a purpose on the part of the bondholders not to agree to any settlement which the people of this State would ratify. We suspect that the Times is not as the same time we cannot forget the men well informed in the premises as we who, coming out of the war without here in Richmond are. Here is an extract from its article : "The obvious intention of the resolutions adopted by the bondholders on September 24th last was neither to reire the State of Virginia to pay more than she could afford, nor to be with less. Moreover, as we read the committee's telegram to Governor Lee, there is no intention of entering upon a conference with the representatives of the State until not only the Legislature shall have authorized the Executive to conclude an arrangement on the basis of the available revenue, but also until such available revenue shall have been satisfactorily determined. If, therefore, the committee is to enter upon any conference with a reasonable prospect of success, a preliminary investi-gation at the hands of independent experts must be undertaken, and suffi-cient time must be allowed for it to be carried through."

If that paragraph correctly represents the intentions of the bondholders, they are still in the dark as to the fixed purpose of the people of Virginia not to make any settlement which has the feature of indefiniteness. They wish to know not only the rate of interest which the creditors propose, but the exact amount of principal. And they do not intend to let any council of foreign bondholders, nor any other body or set of men dictate to them the amount of revenue which is annually to be appropriated by the State government to State purposes. It would be to abdicate the functions of government, and degrade the Commonwealth, for her authorities to stipulate and no more money to pay her expenses, and that she should never hereafter appropriate a million of dollars, nor even a hundred thousand, to build. say, a new capitol.

We make these plain declarations be cause we are sincerely desirous, nay, anxious, that the public debt shall be settled, and know that the people are determined to agree to no humiliating terms-none that will pledge the Commonwealth not to expend any more than so many dollars a year. We concede that the creditors ought to be informed but we do not concede that they are to have any voice in fixing the amount of doing piece-work somewhere. the appropriations to be made every

In a word, the creditors must propose a rate of interest and a principal which they are willing to accept. Then our commission will have something which they will be justified in considering. The objections which we here repeat are the same we have over and over again made to the town-meeting resolutions of September last. We do not suppose the Times speaks for the bondholders. Mr. ROYALL does, and we are confident that he is desirous of settling the State debt, and would recommend no terms which he considered humiliating to his mother State.

The same article in the Times from which we quote the above has the fol-

"The Virginia committee, in view of the probability of an early settlement currence. Mr. Raymond's family live of the State of Virginia with her creditors, call the attention of holders of 'consol' and 'ten-forty' bonds to the necessity of depositing their bonds without delay with Messrs. Martin & Co., in terms of the circular of the committee of December 11th last, in order to participate therein." That paragraph reads as if there were a good spirit prevailing among the bondholders. So does the following, also from the same article :

"Messrs. Andrew Timbrell & Co inform us that, as solicitors for sub-scribers to debentures of the Delagoa Bay and East African railway (limited), having carefully considered the prospectus of the company and the circumstances under which their clients were induced to subscribe, they have deemed it expedient to take counsels opinion as to the legal position of the subscribers. Before taking proceedings it has been considered advisable to convene a meeting of the subscribers to vone a meeting of the subscribers to discuss and determine the course to be pursued, and a meeting having that ob-ject will therefore be held at the Cannon-Street Hotel on Thursday next at 3 P. M."

That meeting was held on the 31st March. We take it for granted, therefore, that the committee comes with the full consent of even those creditors. All these facts make it plain that Virnia did right to constitute a commison to confer with her creditors. She would have been greatly censured if she had refused to confer with them. We shall continue to hope for a final settlement until all reason for hope has been

P. S. Since writing the above we have seen a cable dispatch to Governor Lax from Mr. Bouvenn stating that Bir EDWARD THORNTON will sail on the the Council of Foreign Bondholders meet the debt commission appointed the Legislature. The presumption that others will come with Sir Epginia bonds. In any event, however, the selection of Sir EDWARD THORNTON would at first blush appear to be a good sign. For years he was British Minister at Washington, and we take it that a man of his habits of observation could not have neglected to post himself upon the situation in Virginia and the many questions that bear upon a solution of the debt problem. He should be able to command the ear of those he represents, where men who have not had the advantages of long residence in this country and of his associations would fail. We shall hope for the best from his appointment.

"Honor to Whom Honor."

There is a growing disposition with the papers throughout the country to attribute everything in the way of development in the South in recent years to the "new South" spirit and to the introduction into this section of northern capital. Indeed we are having "new South" and "northern capital" ad nauseam. Such teachings as we refer to not only produce a false impression, but are flagrantly unjust to the old South-the bone and sinew and brain of this section. Those who are carried away with the "new-South" idea ignore that period in our history in which was laid the foundation of the great development of to-day. They ignore the labors of the men who laid that foundation, and who made southern development possible. We willingly concede that northern capital has done vast deal for the South, and that there is a remarkable spirit of enterprise abroad in the southern land. At capital, by energy, self-denial, and unremitting toil rebuilt our burned cities, rehabilitated our railroads, re-estab lished our trade, and, last but not least, broke the power of Radical-Republican rule in the South, thus rendering it safe and desirable for northern capitalists to invest here. But for those men and their work, but for those men and their devotion to principle and duty, the "new era" we hear so much about would not yet have dawned. The "new South," therefore, and for that matter the new North to a great extent, is nothing more nor less than the legitimate outcome of the patrotism, brain, and fortitude of the men of the old South-men whom not only the South but the nation should hold in patriotic remembrance.

The "constituents," without regard to party, color, or previous condition, ought to make their representatives adjust the debt on proper terms, and at once; and if the "constituents" don't make their representative do so, then the representives ought to have the independence to do their duty whether agreeable to their constituents or not .-Lynchburg Advance.

We concur fully in both those declarations; and we are confident that the members of the Legislature are ready and willing to go as far as their constituents will allow them to go.

John T. Raymond was born John O'Brien, April 5, 1836, in Buffalo, N. Y. Seventeen years later, on June 25, 1853, at Rochester, N. He was one of the best "first low comedians" of the the best "first low comedians for in-old stock-company days for a number of years, but it was not until Mark Twain's "Gilded Age" was produced in New York, in the season of 1874– 1875, that he made his great hit as Colonel Mulberry Sellers, since which time he has been one of the most popular and best-drawing stars in the pro-fession. On April 9, 1881, his name was legally changed from O'Brien to Ray-mond, and two days later he married Courtney Barnes, a daughter of Rose Eytinge. His facial appearance, sunken cheeks, long chin, and peculiar expression about the eyes, his odd way of wearing his hair, added a great deal to the effectiveness of his interpretations. He never failed to draw good houses when his ability became recognized. He was one of the best comedians—probably the best in certain lines—on the American stage. His place will not be easily filled.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT

A MAN CRUSBED BENEATH A BURN-ING TREE.

A Brutal Father-North State Court Notes-Drummers, Again-Personal and Briefs.

RALEGOR, April 11.—Darby Gibson, of Richmond county, was engaged with a large party of men in extin-guishing a fire which had broken out in the pine timber near the Gibson branch of the Carolina Central railway. The trees were on fire and burning furiously. Suddenly a pine tree burned through, swayed, and then fell. Warning was shouted to Gibson, but he could not hear it, owing to the roar of the flames. The tree fell upon him. His injuries are considered fatal. James H. Watson, general merchant, of Aurora, has assigned. Liabilities, $10,000; assets, $4,000. The State Board of Medical Examiners met to-day at Charlotte in annual session to examine applicants for license to practice medicine.

To-day Soloman Carpenter, a white man of this county, was tried by a magistrate for shooting his son. The evidence against him was direct, and failing to give bail, he was jailed. His son's condition is reported by physi-cians to be critical. The boy had been most horribly treated by his brutal father.

NEWS IN THE CAPITOL. The Supreme Court to-day called cases from the Tenth judicial district.
The docket is not very heavy.
It will be about ninety days before the Supreme Court and library building will be occupied.

Governor Scales will in a few days call the board together to take initia tory steps towards heating the Capitol, State library, and agricultural building. For this heating $16,000 is appropriated. The selection of a system is left to the Governor and board. It is probable that by November 1st the work will be completed.

Treasurer Bain is very firm in his attitude in regard to the drummers' tax. It is, by the way, claimed by some per sons that Judge Meares's decision in the Foster case was hasty and ill advised, and that it places the State in a false

CURRENT ITEMS.

The Young Men's Christian Associa tion at Charlotte has thus far raised $11,000 for the erection of a building there. There is a general advance of interest in the association. Mr. Eugene L. Harris has been chosen secretary of the Raleigh association.

A rumor is current that Judge A. W. Tourgee is to return to this State, and again live at or near Greensboro'. this connection it has been said he might be a candidate for Congress in the Fifth district. A friend of Tourgee denies the rumor, saying, in fact, that there is not a shadow of truth in it.

The terms of the United States courts will be very short this year, thanks to a great scarcity of funds. The term at Greensboro' was three days, and next week the same time is to be allowed for Statesville court. Asheville will have a week, and there will be no June term at Charlotte. At Raleigh court will be in session only a week, it is expected.

The docket is light anyway.
The Enterprise, published at Snow Hill, suffered considerable loss by the burning of the jail at that place. Its office was in the jail building, which was a two-story brick structure, with offices on the lower floor and the jail proper above. Everything in the Enterprise office was badly damaged, and the paper has not yet reappeared.

A very large portion of Sloan's "History of North Carolina Troops in the War Between the States" consists of compilation of official reports, which Major Sloan evidently secured at Washington, having devoted both care and time to the search. In case the book. now in the hands of the revisers, is published, about 2,000 copies will probably be issued.

Camp Russell, the State property in the suburbs of this city, has been turned over to the State Industrial Association (colored), which will rent out a number of buildings which it contains, the funds so derived to be used by the association for its annual fair. Since 1879 the grounds have been occupied by the fair for about a month each

CURING A COUGH.

When you have a cough it is simply nature's warning that some of the organs of the system are not properly performing their work. In most cases it will be found to be the liver When the liver or kidneys, or perhaps both, fall to properly perform their excretory functions, it is done in part by the mucous membrane, This rends a discharge of mucous or phlegm into the throat, lungs, and bowels; constipation follows, and the phlegm, which should be ejected, remains until it is absorbed, thus poisoning ed, remains until it is absorbed, inds poisoning the system. A dry cough is a symptom of a disordered liver. A physician's statement:
"In the greatment of lung- and bronchial-diseases the liver is often impliented to such an extent that a hepatic remedy becomes necessary in effecting a cure of the lungs. In the treatment of such cases I prescribe Simmons Liver Regulator, prepared by J. H. Zeilin & Co., with entire satisfaction. I find that it acts mildly but effectually in regulating the secretions of the liver, kidneys, and bowels.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Daily News says: "The most alarming reports respecting the Czar have been in circulation here. One rumor was to the effect that a mine has been dis-covered under the imperial palace at Gatschina, but it is learned on the best authority that this report is untrue; also, that no arrests have been made at Gatschins, as was reported. On Wednesday, however, when the Czar was driving to the Gatschina station here a man and woman were seized at the corner of Nevski Prospect and the Great Morskaia ten minutes before the Czar's carriage passed. Another person tried to present a petition as the Czar passed, but was arrested be-fore he could reach the carriage. It had any criminal intentions. The Czar was in perfect health and excellent Vienna and Berlin telegrams confirm the foregoing, and state that the cul-prits stood upon the steps of an unin-habited house, No. 14, and carried bombs under a plaid shawl. WONDERFUL PHENOMENON.

THE CELEBRATED " WALKING MAN" AND WHY HE KEEPS GOING-A WARNING TO OTHERS.

At Mill Grove, Ind., lives John Snider, the "Walking Man." In 1884 he felt muscular and nervous exhaustion, a strange resilesances, general uneasiness, and the only relief he could get was by constant walking. For twenty-eight months he has tramped in a circle around and around his house, resting only four hours each day, and it is estimated he has covered more space than the circumference of the globe. He has attracted universal attention, been visited by hundreds of curlosity-seekers, and has really become a public sharacter. His nervousness has shown itself in walking; other people's nervousnessacts in other ways. Sometimes the person is resitees, trembles, has nervous headaches, a sinking at the pit of the stemach, a lose of appetite, inability to sleep, forebodings, and general exhaustion. At other times irritability, peovishness, and faut duding are felt, and life is a fearful trial. When these things come on something must be done or things. are felt, and life is a fearful trial. When thes things come on something must be done or thin nervousness will lead to insomnia, insanity, o death. Many people take morphine, opinra, o marcelics; but they only deaden the nervos fo the time being. What people need is to saits Nature a little, and Nature itself will restor the nervo-tissue and bring health and strength. The best researches of modern scientists have proven that there is nothing for this purpose equal to pure spirits, and no apirits so reliable and rathable as Duffy's Pare Mait Whiskey. An authority on this subject, being no less that the well-known Dr. Caldwell, who treats only nervous diseases, says:

More Facts.

STERLING, ILL., August 22, 1883. We feel we must write something of the success of Hop Bitters. Their sale is thribble that of any other article of medicine. Heace we feel it but justice to you and your Bitters to say that it is a medicine of real merit and virtue, and doing much good and effecting great cures. Yours, J. P. & H. B. UTLEY.

I am very glad to say I have tried Hop Biters, and never took anything that did me as much good. I only took two bottles, and I would not take $100 for the good they did me, I recommend them to my patients, and get C. B. MERCER, M. D. NEW HAVEN, CONN., September 15, 1885. We take pleasure in giving you a notice, and a nice, strong one, as it (flop Bitters) deserves it. We use it, and we know it deserves it.—The Register.

I purchased five bottles of your Hop Bitters of Bishop & Co. last fall for my daughter, and am well pleased with the Bitters. They did her more good than all the medicine she has taken for six years.

WILLIAM T. McCLURE.

The above is from a very remains farmer, whose daughter was in poor health for seven of eight years, and could obtain no relief until she used Hop Bitters. She is now in as good health as any person in this country. We have large sales, and they are making remarkable cures.

Hop Bitters Company:

Hop Bitters are the most valuable medicine I ever knew. I should not have any mother new but for them. HENRY KNAPP.

All people have nervous exhaustion at times, but only those who are careless permit it to continue. When it does continue it runs into the worst known troubles, which make life a burden and death a relief. People who allow this are alone to blame, for it is comparatively easy to evercome, and can be absolutely controlled. By the use of the pure stimulant (but not intexicant) above named those fearful things may be avoided, and health and happiness succeed to sickness and misery. I have been using Hop Bitters, and have re-ceived great benefit from them for liver con-plaint and malarial fever. They are superior to all other medicines. P. M. BARNES. Hop Eltters Manufacturing Company: Hep Ettlers Manufacturing Company:

I know Hop Bitters will bear recommendation honestly. All who use them confer upon them the bighest enconiums and give them credit for making cures—all the proprietors claim for them. I have kept them since they were first offered to the public. They took high rank from the first, and maintained it, and are more called for than all others combined. So long as they keep up their high reputation for purity and usefulness I shall continue to recommend them—something I have never done before with any patent medicine.

We are authorized by the Council of Foreign Rondholders to call the attention of holders of Virginia consols and 10-40's to the fact that that the English bondholders are endeavoring, through the Instrumentality of the Council of Foreign Bondholders, to bring about a satisfactory settlement of the debt of Virginia.

With this object in view the English bondholders have, to a large extent, agreed to pool their bonds, and have authorized the Council of Foreign Bondholders to act for them in the negotiations which are about to be had between a commission sent out from London and a committee appointed by the Legislature of Virginia. It is most desirable that all holders of Virginia bonds, both at home and abroad, should unite in the effort to effect an early settlement of the State debt. To better accomplish this object the Council of Foreign Bondholders earnesstly request the holders of Virginia bonds in America to co-operate with them and to forward to ourselves their names and addresses, stating the amount of bonds held, at as early a day as possible.
